70th Wedding Anniversary

Congratulations and best wishes to William and Millicent Brown who are celebrating their 70th Wedding Anniversary on Tuesday 18th September 2018.

Both served in World War 2 and William joined the City Police in 1946. He served at Central Division, Mechanised Division and both the City and combined Force Control Rooms before retiring in 1976.

Bill started fishing with the force upon joining the force and has fished with the police team ever since without a break. On the eve of his 90th birthday he won a match at Portland fishery with 89lb despite him stopping for his regulation picnic and coffee break half way through. He still attends most of our matches on this his 73rd season and 93rd birthday and even empties everybody's wallets playing Ku Kan after the match. He obviously isn't as nimble as he was but he still sets up his tackle on his own and is always happy being out with the lads and catching a few
